

President's Day is celebrated on the third Monday of February. Pretend you are the President of the United States for a day. Write a short speech about what you would do to make the country a better place. What laws would you create? How would you help people? Share your ideas and why you think they are important for our country.